

Vermillion Federal Credit Union

Online Service Account Agreement

- ⇒ It is my responsibility to keep the account number, password/PIN and security questions, secure at all times. The Credit Union can be called at any time and these can be reset. It is often smart to change passwords/questions often due to increased fraud online.
- ⇒ If someone should ever using my PIN or account number to create unauthorized transactions my rights are explained in the Truth In Savings Booklet. If I encounter transactions that were not of my own, I shall contact the Credit Union immediately.
- ⇒ If enrolling for E-statements, online banking is required with a valid email address. You will receive a monthly email from the Credit Union to notify you that your statement is available. Once you log into It's Me 24/7, you will see the "E-Statements," link. Click this link. From there, you can view any past statements.
